

City Engineer

Charles A. Kalkomey, P.E.

REGISTRATION

Registered Professional Engineer 46208
Registered Professional Land Surveyor 2506

POSITION

Vice President
Rosenberg Office Manager
Pledger Kalkomey, Inc. - Consulting Engineers, A Jones and Carter Company

EDUCATION

Texas A&M University
B. S. Civil Engineering, 1974
Summa Cum Laude

AFFILIATIONS

American Society of Civil Engineers
International Erosion Control Associations

RESPONSIBILITIES

Charles A. Kalkomey has twenty-seven (27) years of experience in project management, project engineering, and civil design. His responsibilities include fiscal management and ownership of and engineering and a surveying firm providing consulting engineering services to both the public and private sectors. Mr. Kalkomey has managed and designed many drainage related projects, as well as water improvements, sanitary sewerage improvements, street improvements, and planning studies. As City Engineer Mr. Kalkomey serves as the Flood Plain Administrator and conducts engineering consultation with the City Council on all matters related to drainage, platting, mapping, boundaries, and permitting as appropriate.